

The BRENCHLEY & MATFIELD LOCAL HISTORY SOCIETY began on 28th March 1971.

The objects of the Society are:

To promote interests in local history, arrange talks & organise outings to places of historical interest.

To work in close collaboration & mutual support with the Parish Archive.

The Parish Archive in Brenchley Memorial Hall is open on

Mondays 1.30pm – 3.30pm

Thursdays 10.00am – 1.00pm

The Society has published:

1. A Victorian Pictorial Record of Brenchley & Matfield
2. Brenchley & Matfield Millenium Record: A Modern Doomsday Book
3. Brenchley & Matfield Revisited
4. We will Remember Them: The War Memorials in the Village of Brenchley
